

Letters of Support for "Diva Dog"

"Having been a dog lover my whole life, I have grown to realize how much we can learn from them. They simply love unconditionally--a trait that our society needs to grasp a hold of and not let go of. A disabled animal, such as Diva dog, is equally capable of giving and receiving love as any of its counterparts. I support Diva Dog unconditionally--as she, and others like her, would do for us.

Eric Martsolf

"I support "Diva Dog". I am participating in this important documentary to help educate and enlighten the world to the options available for disabled animals."
